

Brasil 2008

Useful information

Come to the ICOMAM's first South American conference in Rio de Janeiro, Brasil, where colleagues from arms and military museum around the world will meet, sharing knowledge and experiences between diferent cultures and continents and making strategies for a positive future. There will be conference sessions during the morning and visits to Brasilian musuems during afternoons.

Papers about conservation projects, display techniques, showing the history, new research, marketing strategies and others related to the subject, to be selected for presentation in the Conference, are welcome.

See folders